

Signpost

Dear Parent

We are currently reviewing our school lunch menu, and would like to gather children's views on their favourite meals at school and at home. At the end of this Signpost is a short survey for children to complete (with your help if necessary) and return to their class teachers on Monday.

On Thursday, Barnardo's will be visiting school to lead a special assembly and set a challenge for children to take part in. It could be a 'veggie' interesting project...! Details will be sent home with children after the assembly on Thursday.

Thank you to everyone who returned the survey for a morning or breakfast club. The response was very positive, and I will share the outcomes and plans before half term.

Thank you

Allie Majer
